LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR TERMS

Are One Dollar a Year in Advance!

Persons who receive a paper with this article marked, may know that they should renew their subscription, if they wish to continue to receive The Times.

Ballou's Magazine for February is at hand and contains its usual variety of interesting and instructive reading. It is certainly the cheapest magazine we know of. Elliott, Thomas and Talbot, of Boston, are the publishers.

Accident.—On Monday of last week, the horses of Mr. John Kell, of Rye township, took fright at the blowing of a whistle while passing the round house at Marysville, and threw him on the hames of the saddle horse, injuring him considerably internally.

Horse Thieves.—Sometime during last Saturday night, some person or persons stole a dark bay horse and a buggy from the stable of Mr. Wertz, in Carlisle. On Sunday, the stolen property was traced to where the roads fork, about two miles east of this borough, but from there the parties in pursuit got on the wrong route.

Thieves.—While an exhibition was in progress at New Germantown a few evenings since, which was attended by Mr. Noel's family, some person entered their house and stole a quantity of wheat and buck wheat flour, corn meal &c. They were evidently putting in a winter supply of provisions, without money and without price.

Building Association.—A building association has been organized at Marysville. They are determined to have their borough one of the progressive kind. The officers are D. K. Reeder, President. J. M. Miller, Vice President. Lewis W. Lesh, Secretary. John B. Liddle, Treasurer. Dr. O. T. Everhart, Solicitor.

Why can't Bloomfield do something of the kind? Houses are badly needed here.

Disturbing Religious Meetings.—The following from the York county True Democrat, may be read with advantage in many parts of our own county.

A young man by the name of Adam Seachrist was tried in the court last week, and convicted for disturbing a religious meeting on the 19th of March last, in the U. Brethern, in Dallastown, York co. In order to avoid disturbance and confusion, during service, the trustees of the congregation had established a rule that all persons leaving the house before the congregation was dismissed, should retire by a side door, with which fact Seachrist was well acquainted. Notwithstanding this, he insisted upon violating the rule, and the noise and confusion occasioned by his leaving that night at the wrong door was such as to break up the meeting. The charge of the Hon. Robt. J. Fisher, the Presiding Judge, to the Jury, was such as to reflect great credit upon the head and heart of that able and distinguished jurist. A religious congregation has a right to make rules for the government of their services in the house in which they are held, and persons knowingly violating them, are liable to the penalty imposed by the Act of Assembly passed for their protection. There are young men, and others not so young, who are in the habit of attending our different churches where services are now regularly held during the week, not so much for deriving any benefit from the services as to gratify an idle curiosity of "seeing and being seen." While there, they behave themselves in an unseemly manner, by talking and laughing and squirting tobacco juice on the floor, and they are all liable to the penalty imposed by our Act of Assembly. Seachrist, in the case mentioned, was sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars, the costs of prosecution and undergo an imprisonment of fifteen days in the county jail.

The Best in Use.—The Parham Sewing Machine is the most simple, the most complete, works with less noise and will be found the best machine in use. They may be seen at the store of James L. Diven in Landisburg, or of F. Mortimer, New Bloomfield. Every person who thinks of purchasing a sewing machine, should not fail to examine The Parham Machine.

Church Notices.

In the Presbyterian Church—Prayer Meeting on Wednesday evening. Prayer meeting on Sunday at 10½ A. M. Preaching in the evening at 7 P. M. Young men's prayer meeting at William Burns' on Saturday evening at 6 o'clock.

In the M. E. Church—Prayer Meeting on Thursday evening. Preaching next Sabbath, at 10½ o'clock, a. m., by Rev. W. Shriver.

In the Lutheran Church, preaching every evening during the week.

Sudden Death.—On Thursday afternoon, about four o'clock, Benjamin Biggs, sen., died suddenly, at the residence of his son, in this place. We learn his death was produced by apoplexy, he expiring immediately after receiving the stroke. Mr. B. was a native of Maryland, but has been for some years residing with his son, in this place. He was social and cheerful in his disposition, and was greatly respected by all who knew him. His age was seventy two years.—Shippensburg News.

If any proof was needed that the old fogies were not all dead yet, the following letter would establish it beyond doubt.—Ed.

The Railroad Humbug.

MR. EDITOR: Sir, I see you take an interest in the railroad scheme, which has been going on in our valley for at least ten years, to fool and humbug our honest farmers and mechanics. It is now time for the leaders of this railroad to see their folly and give it up for a bad job.

I will take some of the wool off their eyes. I have no belief in a railroad ever running through this little valley, and I think it is a great nonsense to talk about it, for if it was made there would not be enough of business to pay for keeping it up, and would do more damage than it would be worth.

Our fathers got along right well without a railroad and had to haul their produce to Baltimore on wagons, and I think we should be satisfied to live as they did. A few years ago our people invested their money in oil stock, and some in silver mines, and that was the last they seen of it. Just so it will be with the Railroad. There are always some persons who are not satisfied to let well enough alone, and who are going about with some new scheme, seeking whom they may devour, but they never catch me in their trap, for I am too sharp for them. I never go in for patent rights or any other mean humbug contrivance, but try to live in the good old way our fathers lived. I want you to be sure to publish this article as it is for the interest and welfare of your good readers, but if you or some other person has any objections or reply to make to it, I hope you will publish it also, in order that all can see both sides of the question and judge for themselves which is right.

YOUR FRIEND,

For the Bloomfield Times.

Donally's Mills, January 13, 1870.

MR. EDITOR: Dear Sir—Your patrons in this neighborhood are much delighted with the enlarged form of your excellent paper, and the general expression heard of it is, The cheapest and best paper in the county.

For some time, and at the present, quite a religious interest prevails in this neighborhood, as the effect of a series of meetings being held at School House No. 5, by the Rev. Messrs. Miller and Swingle, minister of the Evangelical Association. Among the seekers are some of the most hardened cases in the neighborhood. This is a new appointment and promises to be one of some influence.

As items of news though rather stale, we will mention that Mr. William Baker's store of this place was broken into a few nights ago, by some burglars and robbed of some of its valuables.

Mr. Lobaugh will shortly occupy the store room at the corner recently vacated by Mr. Willis.

Yours,

UPHATH.

In Demand.—Lewis Potter, Esq. of this borough was appointed, a few days ago, Agent of the Aetna Fire Insurance Co., of Hartford, Conn., by T. Kirk White, Esq., Special Agent. The Aetna is one of the oldest companies in the United States, and the losses paid in fifty years has amounted to almost thirty-six millions of dollars.

"By their fruits ye know them." It is one of the most absurd things upon earth to neglect the means of providing a remedy against the overwhelming consequences of fire, when such a remedy is attainable without the slightest difficulty. Have your property at all times insured. Always ask Mr. Potter for a policy in the old Aetna.

Briefs.

A hog whose net weight was 628 lbs., was recently killed by S. W. Sharpe at Newville.

On last Thursday we saw farmers plowing, while passing through Lancaster Co.

The Inauguration of Governor Geary is to take place to-day. Quite a military display is expected.

Mr. Daniel Gallatin, one of the oldest citizens in the borough, died on Saturday last.

Carlisle is having many cases of scarlet fever, and what is nearly as bad, has the velocipede mania again.

A meeting for the purpose of raising funds for the improvement of the Presbyterian Church, in this borough, was held last week. It is a work that is badly needed.

The Ger. Ref. Church recently completed at Newport, was dedicated to the Triune God, on Sabbath last. The total cost was some $6,000. The balance of indebtedness was $1,626 of which $1,250 was subscribed on the occasion. Leaving some $376 yet unpaid.

The Huntingdon County Grand Jury, for this term have returned three bills of indictment against Gottlieb Bohner and Albert Vanbordenburg, for the murder of John Peightel and Scott Garner. On the 13th inst., the prisoners were brought into court, arraigned according to the forms of law, and a jury was called and sworn in. The trial will proceed at once, and will probably conclude on Monday or Tuesday of this week.

The trial promises to be of unusual interest. The counsel for the Commonwealth are Milton S. Lytle, District Attorney, P. M. Lytle and R. B. Pelsken. The Court assigned R. Milton Speer and S. T. Brown for the defendants. A crowd of people filled the court-room, all eager to get a sight at the prisoners. Vanbordenburg, in answering to his arraignment, said very distinctly—"I am not guilty," while Bohner responded in a less audible tone of voice.

The appearance of the prisoners has improved during their incarceration. They conduct themselves as complacently as could be possible under the circumstances.
